

Notice of Ongoing Name Change

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to inform you that I am currently in the process of legally changing my name from Daniel Cimanuka to Danader Nisral.

This decision is a personal one, made thoughtfully. It is not related in any way to legal issues, past incidents, or attempts to hide any part of my identity. I have no criminal record, no outstanding cases, and nothing in my history that would require concealment. I simply wish to continue my personal and professional journey under a name that feels good to me.

Currently, some of my official documents, such as my passport and academic documents, still reflect the name "Daniel Cimanuka". However, I have begun using Danader Nisral across professional platforms, including my email address, resume, website, and digital identity.

Please be assured that both names refer to the same person, myself. If there is any need for clarification, supporting documents, or further information, I am more than happy to provide it upon request.

Thank you sincerely for your time, understanding, and consideration.

Best regards,

Danader Nisral
